P. G. MARSTELLER.

For Sale.

THE subscriber offers for sale a tract of 80 acres of land, on the Colchester road, five miles from Alexandria, adjoining the lands of Haywood Foote and Jennison Johnston. The greater part of this tract is fine meadow land, abundantly supplied with water. Also one other tract of 261 acres, on the Ravensworth road, about 6 miles from Alexandria, and one mile from the first mentioned tract, adjoining land of Thos. Janney and Mr.
M'Pherson: the greater part of this tract is in wood, the soil good and highly suceptible of improvement from the use of manure. If these lands are not sold before the first of January next, they will then be for rent.

CHARLES SIMMS.

Gill Nets! Gill Nets!

To the Citizens of Washington, Frederick, and Montgomery counties.

As the General Assembly of Maryland will sit in the course of a few weeks, I take the liberty of calling the attention of the people of the upper counties to the subject of Gill Nets; that all those who may agree with me in opinion, may unite in petitions to the Legislature to pass such laws as may effectually prevent the use of them hereafter in the Potomac.
Since the introduction of these Nets into our waters, the people of the upper counties have experienced the most pernicious effects of this practice. It is a fact well known, that many persons at the last season, after leaving their homes, with their teams, at the most busy season of the year, and travelling, perhaps, from 50 to 100 miles to reach the nearest landings, and after being detained there a considerable time, exposed to the inclemencies of the weather, and often without any shelter but what was afforded to them by the coverings of their waggons, while their crops too were suffering greatly at home, were obliged at last to return without any fish. Some purchased their Herrings, but not one in ten could get the Shad they wanted for their families. These Gill Nets, it is said, are fished almost exclusively by persons from the Eastward—a covetous people they must be—they would take the bread from our mouths if they could do it—and they certainly will take the fish if left to themselves.
It is stated they had 500 vessels engaged in this business during the last season; such a number of Nets will form such an obstruction in the river as to keep back the Shad altogether, and by breaking the schools of Herrings will render even the catching of them uncertain. And what adds to our grievance, the fish that are caught in this manner are not disposed of to our citizens, but are cured on board the vessels that take them, and carried as an article of traffic to some other portions of the Union, or, perhaps, to foreign parts.

The people of the upper counties are peculiarly situated; living remote from any of the Rivers, with which nature has so bountifully watered our state, they have only an opportunity afforded to them once a year of procuring fish of any kind for their families; and it rests with the Legislature to determine whether they shall be deprived of this right, attended as it is too, with great sacrifice, expense and trouble; and it must be known too to the members that may compose that body, that fish, from long use and custom, have become indispensably necessary to our families.

If any doubt should exist as to the facts herein stated, I have only to observe that they will be entirely removed by referring to any one from either of the upper counties, who attended at the landings either of the two last seasons, particularly the last.
Having said much more than I intended, I have only to call upon all those who feel an interest in this business, to lose no time in getting signatures to such a petition as I have recommended, and also to see and converse upon the subject with such persons as they may think proper to send as delegates to the next General Assembly; and I have also to request the favor of the editors of the Fredericktown papers, to give these remarks a place in their respective papers, that the subject may be fully brought before the people of the upper counties.

ABSCONDED On Saturday morning, the 15th inst. negro George, or George Griffin, the property of Miss M'Call, hydrated a mailer, and understands some part of the blacksmith's business; he is about 30 years of age, 5 feet 6 or 7 inches high, stout made, very black complexion, large eyes and mouth, with thick lips. He is a very artful fellow and has been in the habit of obtaining himself a free man, and will no doubt attempt to pass as such, and probably get work—has a down look when spoken to.—His clothes not recollected, having various suits.

A reward of 10 dollars will be given if taken in the town or county, 20 in the county of Washington or Fairfax, or the above reward if taken 50 miles from town, with all reasonable charges if brought home.
Masters of vessels are cautioned against harboring, or carrying off said runaway, as they will be dealt with according to law.

Exchange & Broker's Office, Georgetown, District of Columbia.

ROMULUS RIGGS.

AT his office, next door below Craw-ford's tavern, Bridge-st. Georgetown, will exchange all kinds of Bank Notes on the most reasonable terms.—All persons who may have notes on the banks of North Carolina, South Carolina and Georgia, would do well to call on him, as he is largely in the purchase of that kind of money, and will take it on the most reasonable terms.—Persons travelling to the Western Country may at all times get the Bank Notes of the Western Banks at a fair discount, by calling at his Office. For the information of all persons throughout the U.
States, R. Riggs makes it known, that all of the Banks of the District of Columbia pay their notes on demand in specie; and it would be much to the advantage of the merchants, and trading to the South and west, to encourage the circulation of the Notes of the Banks of Georgetown, Washington and Alexandria, as it will at all times answer for remittances to the large commercial and Atlantic towns;—all persons emigrating or travelling to the westward should be very particular and take the Notes of the Banks of the District of Columbia, as they will find them the most current, there being no counterfeits on the District Banks. The Merchants' Bank of Alexandria has long since failed,—all persons should be on their guard, as they will be imposed on. August 18

The National Register

Is a paper which is published, every Saturday, at the city of Washington, in the District of Columbia, and each number contains sixteen pages octavo, in small but very legible type. It makes two volumes in the year; and every volume is accompa-annum is five dollars, payable in advance.

The Public Documents, both foreign and domestic; the proceedings of Congress, and authentic news of every description, are regularly inserted therein, and accompanied by critical and explanatory remarks. Its value is also enhanced by occasional reviews of literary works; and all its sentiments are decidedly American, independent of all party considerations. For this work, which is well established, regularly published, and transmitted weekly to subscribers by the mail, the public patronage is respectfully solicited.

LAWRENCE, WILSON & Co.

To the Public.

AN unusual sensibility has been excited in the minds of our countrymen by the copper plate engraving of the Declaration of Independence recently published, accompanied by fac similes of the signatures of those illustrious patriots who framed the document by which our independence was announced to the world. We feel, while we dwell on those signatures, as if we were ushered into the immediate presence of characters so exalted, and we seem for a time to participate in all the emotion which they felt on the approach of so vital a crisis—Hostile armies, desolate fields, towns and cities in conflagration—carnage and death in its most frightful forms appeared in prophetic vision on the one hand, and more than all, the complicated horrors, ignominy and slavery were presented for their acceptance on the other; they deliberated, they paused, they trembled, and at last solemnly appealing to the God of battles, they resolved that the United States were and ought to be free, sovereign and independent. These illustrious patriots, with five solitary exceptions, have now mingled with the common mould—they survive only in their country's glory and in the recollection of a grateful people. But it would be consoling to the present generation, separated as they now are from those patriots; by the intervention of the tomb, to become more intimately acquainted with their revolutionary benefactors. We love to dwell on the features of such men, situated as they are on the pencil from the oblivion of the grave, and emulate the prominent feats of their biography. Impressed with these ideas, the subscriber proposes, if suitable encouragement is given, to publish the lives of those patriots in numbers, until the whole is completed. The work will be executed in a style not inferior to any European productions, and the portraits by masters of ac-knowledgeed merit. The biography will be ver to answer—but we learn by a John-n paper, now before us, that the name the lady is Mrs. Lucy Hubbard, of Canamarie, and that of the defendant, Dr.

H. H. Steele, of Saratoga.

the citizens of the county of Alexandria:
The late Grand Jury for the county of Alexandria, after having discharged the duty judicially required of them, took advantage of that exchange of a very respectable representation of the town and county, to enter upon the consideration of political condition and prospects of the community. As the community is at present organized, the Grand Jury is the only body in which the common interests and sights of the people at large are in any degree represented, and it is the most proper for originating any measure of public importance. The following resolution, therefore, unanimously passed and signed the members of the Grand Jury before they were discharged by the court,—if not certain indication of the actual opinion of the people at large,—is doubtless a preliminary measure of sufficient authenticity and importance, to call for the solemn denunciation of the people; and renders it an unquestionable duty of the committee minuted by the Grand Jury to take the sense of the town and county upon the question.

Resolution unanimously passed and signed by the Grand Jury for Alexandria county, at November term, 1818.

The President of the United States having recommended to the consideration of Congress the situation and government of the District, and it appearing to all the persons composing the Grand Jury for the county of Alexandria, that it is a subject of great interest to the town and county: It being moreover their opinion that a resolution of this portion of the District to the state of Virginia, would, without conflicting with the constitutional motives which established the seat of government in this District, best comport with the feelings, rights, and interests of the people of the county: It is therefore Resolved, That the following gentlemen be requested to act as a committee to promote this measure, viz: Alter Jones, Thomas Swann, James H.
Cooper, Robert L. Taylor, Thomson F. Mason, Francis Peyton, John Richards, William Minor, and Hugh Smith.

F. Peyton, William Minor, Jacob Hoffman, B. Dainierfeld, Jacob Morgan, A. Schofield, J. H. Hoar, Hugh Smith,
W. T. Swann, George Wise, Robert Young, Thomas Jacobs, Charles L. Catlett, B. Bryan, Newton Keene, James McGuire, John Lloyd.

The committee named in the above resolution of the Grand Jury, respectfully request a FULL MEETING of the citizens of the town and county of Alexandria, at the Court-House, on Monday, the 4th day of December, at 12 o'clock of that day, in order to take into consideration the highly important subject of a RESTORATION OF SAID TOWN AND COUNTY TO THE TERRITORY AND JURISDIC-TION OF VIRGINIA, pursuant to the recommendation of the Grand Jury.

Walter Jones, Thomson F. Mason, Thomas Swann, F. Peyton, J. H. Hoar, John Richards,
Robert L. Taylor, Hugh Smith.

A SERMON.

On Sunday next, 13th inst. the Rev.
R. BAXTER, D. D. Pastor of the Catholic Church of Richmond, Va. and Rector of Trinity Church, in the same city, will deliver a Religious Discourse in the Catholic Church of Alexandria, at 7 P. M. Mr. B., on the part of the poor of Alexandria, is grateful for the contribution which was collected last Tuesday. No collection will be made in the Catholic Church in the morning—the collection will be made in the evening; and although nothing extraordinary is wished or expected, that contribution will be employed for the benefit of the Church of Alexandria and of Richmond.

Laws of the District of Columbia.

In the press, and will shortly be published,
By DAVIS & FORCE, IN THE CITY OF WASHINGTON,
"A COMPLETE CODE OF LAWS
DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA."

With a copious Index, prepared and reported by the Hon. chief justice CRANCH, to the congress of the United States, for their sanction; agreeably to the provisions of the act of the 29th April, 1816, entitled "an act authorizing the judges of the circuit court and the attorney for the District of Columbia, to prepare a code of jurisprudence for the said District."

The laws by which this District is now governed, can only be found by a reference to the numerous volumes containing those of the United States, of the states of Virginia and Maryland, and of England—therefore the acquisition of this code (which will comprise the whole in one volume), must be considered as of the first importance, by all magistrates, gentlemen of the bar, and citizens in general, who have, heretofore, experienced the necessity of a work of this description.

A few extra copies will be printed for such persons only as apply previous to the publication of the work.

Gentlemen who wish to be supplied, will please to leave their names at this office. 6t Dec 5

LAST NIGHT.

THIS EVENING.
Philosophical Exhibition,
AT THE THEATRE.

BY PARTICULAR DESIRE.
MR. BRUNEL.

EX-ASSOCIATE OF MR. STANISLAS.
Grateful for the applause and patronage which he has obtained in this enlightened city, and gratified to find that the various experiments he has presented have been approved of, for their innocence, and the unfeigned candor with which he has addressed the audience, is desirous to present another, and his last, course to Philosophical Experiments, AND ILLUSIONS OF ART.

Such as no other person has attempted. A-moung the vast variety, he will exhibit, ON SATURDAY EVENING, DEC. 12, THE NE PLUS ULTRA.

The most interesting and impenetrable Secret in the Arcana of Philosophical Illusions, which drew crowded houses for 40 successive nights, in Paris, Vienna, Bordeaux, New-York, and Philadelphia.
Notwithstanding every attempt to develop the means by which the objects were conveyed, it still remains the wonder of the most acute minds. The exhibitor will borrow, from any of the company present, Shawls, Handkerchiefs, Hats, &c.

which articles at command, will disappear from before the eyes of the spectators, and will be found in Any part of the City not exceeding one mile, in Chimneys, Public Edifices, Apartments, &c. &c. Or, in a word, in any place required by the Company. To do away the impression of a confederacy, those deputed for the purpose of bringing the articles from the place so ordered, shall be chosen by a majority of votes present, and a Carriage, will be in waiting, for the purpose of conveying them. To enlarge on this truly surprising and astonishing deception, would be unnecessary, as the idea is so incredible, it requires all the dignity of man to believe, after having seen, that there was a possibility of performing it, without the aid of supernatural influence.

With many other new and interesting EXPERIMENTS, too tedious to mention, which will astonish the spectators, (Admittance, Box fifty cents, Gallery twenty-five—children half price.
Doors open at six o'clock, and performance to begin at seven. Dec 10

To the Public.

A CERTAIN person, named BRUNEL, is now exhibiting in Alexandria, and other places, with the imposing profession of "Ex-Associate of Mr. STANISLAS." This is to give notice, that I have no connexion, whatever, with him, and that he merely assumes the outline of my name for the purpose of impressing a belief that he is in possession of the secrets of my art.
Whatever he pretends to, through my celebrity, is a palpable imposition. Said Brunel has also had the impudence to copy my bills, so as to make it appear that he had performed in Europe, and in New-York, Philadelphia, Baltimore &c. in which places he never appeared in any other character than that of a lamp-lighter. As witness my hand, at the City of Washington, this 8th day of December, 1818.

STANISLAS.
(Seal)
Printer, in Alexandria, Richmond, Fredericksburg and Petersburg, will copy this three times, and present their bills for payment to the Gazette Office, City of Washington. Dec 10

EXCHANGE BANKING HOUSE, AND BROKER'S OFFICE,
Bridge-street, Georgetown.
THIS is intended as a permanent establishment, and the community will find it one of the greatest conveniences in the United States, and of great public utility.
At this house the fair exchange on the different bank notes from every part of the Union can at all times be had: It is to be hoped that, by the operations of this office, the community will get rid of a host of Shillocks, Shavers, Secret and Running Brokers, who infest the District, frequently proclaiming the failure of country solvent banks, for the express purpose of purchasing the notes of such institutions at great discounts. Business under the following heads will be transacted. This establishment possesses funds to negotiate for any amount, and all business done for cash.
1st. All bank checks, bills at sight, post notes not due, and bank notes from all parts of the United States, bought and sold.
2d. All notes, bills of exchange, dividends and interests, collected and remitted according to orders.
3d. The notes of the United States' bank and all of its branches received at par.
4th. Strangers, citizens, and others, may deposit current money for safe keeping—and it be left for thirty days, or longer, will receive at the rate of six per cent. per annum for the same.
5th. All business in the line of a money broker is promptly attended to for a small commission.
6th. All southern and western traders, banking to the district large sums of southern and western bank notes, can deposit for safe keeping, and draw for the same as they suit their convenience.
7th. Prompt attention paid to the orders of all respectable brokers and exchange offices throughout the United States—who will please to favor me occasionally with their rates of exchange on bank notes and bills.
Georgetown, Dec. 9.

Notice.
THE subscribers continue to act as BRO-KERS, at their office, corner of Fairfax and Prince streets. They decline making any lengthy, pompous parade, as to their capabilities in transacting the business appertaining to them: and they will forbear "manning" their flags on any members of the vocation which existing circumstances have produced.—But they will resist any spirit of monopoly that may show itself in the profession. Moneys deposited with them will be as safe as at any bank in town; for which they will allow, if it remains in their hands thirty days, at the rate of six per cent per annum.

Valuable Property for Sale.
THE subscriber wishes to sell Mount Engle, his present residence. This property is situated in Fairfax county, Virginia, in the immediate vicinity of Alexandria, commanding a fine view of the town, the city of Washington, and a part of Georgetown—an extensive view of the Potomac and the country around, which is highly improved, and distant from Alexandria about three quarters of a mile, containing from thirty to forty acres, inclosed with a good post and rail fence. The improvements are, a handsome and convenient frame dwelling house, with a kitchen, wash house and pantry; under the same roof, a smoke house; stables, &c. with a never-failing spring of excellent water, within 50 yards.—With the above property some of the most substantial articles of household furniture may be had. Also, a small farm, distant from Alexandria from three to four miles, on the road leading to Mount Vernon, containing two hundred and twenty-seven acres, more or less; from fifty to eighty acres of which is in good wood; and all lying well for improvement, having a proportion of up and bottom land. This land shows the effect of plaster very precisely, very satisfactory experiments having been made.—A part of the bottomland is now in Timothy, and the whole is susceptible of being made to produce it, having a sufficiency of water on every part.
There is on this land a beautiful situation for a dwelling house, commanding a fine view of Mount Vernon, fort Washington and the Potomac; and a very highly improved country around. The terms, for the whole or any part of the above property, may be ascertained by application to the subscriber, or, in his absence, to James Fenton, esq. of Clifton Lodge, Fairfax county. WALTER H. JENIFER.

Gunston for Sale.
THIS elegant estate is situated on the Potomac, 16 miles below Alexandria—it is bounded on three sides by the Potomac and Potomac creek, and contains nearly 3,000 acres of land, level and fertile, to which are attached six shad and herring fisheries, two of which command the river channel. This land will be laid off in four tracts, so as to have one or more fisheries to each; these tracts will be again divided in requisites. This estate is level and beautifully situated, very fertile, and remarkably healthy. Plaster acts with an effect equal to that of any part of Virginia or Pennsylvania. I have used 500 bushels in twelve months, and such is its beneficial operation, that were I to keep this land, I should considerably increase the quantity. A manufacturing mill is distant about two miles, on a stream navigable for vessels carrying 1200 bushels of wheat, where the Baltimore and Dist. of Columbia prices are given (grain being hauled on 3 sides by water, a small extent only of fence is necessary to inclose the whole; it would be admirably adapted to grazing. The improvements are a large and very substantial brick mansion, 40 by 70 feet, with every necessary out-house, three commodious barns, houses for Negroes, and fish houses at each of the fisheries. 120,000 bricks and 1000 bushels of lime are just burnt on the premises. There is a considerable extent of live-fence, both useful and ornamental, two orchards of well selected apples and peaches, besides an abundance of other choice fruit. More than 150 acres are in clover, 200 in corn, and land is in preparation for sowing 650 bushels of small grain. Any quantity of hay can be cut from the low grounds, some of which (and all might) have been reclaimed at a trifling expense. The river and creeks, abound with wildfowl, particularly canvas backs, the woods with deer and a variety of other game. Mules, cattle, highly improved sheep, farming utensils and household furniture can be had. The terms of sale will be accommodating. Property in any of the cities, negroes, bank stock, western lands, or lands near the Ridge, will be taken in payment. Letters must be addressed to me at Pohlke Church, Fairfax county, Virginia.
September 4 GEORGE MASON.

Valuable Property for Sale.
THE subscriber is desirous of selling a handsomely situated farm, on Hunting creek, in Fairfax county Virginia, adjoining the Mount Vernon estate and the lands of general Thomson Mason, four miles from Alexandria, containing about 240 acres, 80 of which are in wood—40 to 50 in thriving meadow of clover and timothy—a part of the residue recently seeded with wheat and rye, and clover, last spring—the whole enclosed with a new post and rail fence. The improvements are, a comfortable and convenient frame dwelling house and kitchen, smoke house, poultry house, granary and stables. There is also on this place a rich and productive garden, and a large body of marsh meadow, from which may be saved annually 100 tons of hay, nearly as nutritious as the best timothy or clover. With the farm would be sold a number of very valuable horses, cows and sheep; waggon, carts, and a variety of farming utensils and household and kitchen furniture; corn, oats and rye, and 40 tons hay. Also, adjoining the one above described, a farm containing 160 acres, recently enclosed, on which is a brick house, which a trifling expense would render comfortable. The soil is excellent, and a considerable part might be easily converted into meadow—it would be sold with the other or separately. Also, a number of valuable servants, male and female. To prevent unnecessary application, he would observe, that they will only be sold to persons residing in the District or its vicinity, and not to be carried from it. The subscriber will also sell the greater part of his household furniture, which is new and handsome. For terms of all or any part of the above property, apply to NOBLET HERBERT, Esq. or

Public Sale.
IN obedience to an order of the county court of Fairfax, we will, on Monday, the 21st day of December next, proceed to sell to the highest bidder, all that tract or parcel of land, (now occupied by, and in the possession of Thomas Ogden of Thomas,) belonging to the representatives of the late John Allison, sen. deceased. This tract is believed to contain between 60 and 100 acres, tolerably well watered, with a good proportion in wood, bounded by Ravensworth, and the lands of William Cass, sen. Zachariah Ward, and W. H. Foote, Esq. and about seven miles from Alexandria; a further description is thought unnecessary, as it is presumed any person inclined to purchase would view the premises, which will be shown on application to the tenant, Thomas Ogden of Thomas. The terms will be one third cash, and bonds with approved security for the balance, payable in 12 and 18 months. The sale to take place on the premises, and will commence at 11 o'clock, at which time and place due attendance will be given by the
COMMISSIONERS.

To the Citizens of Washington, Frederick, and Montgomery counties.
As the General Assembly of Maryland will sit in the course of a few weeks, I take the liberty of calling the attention of the people of the upper counties to the subject of Gill Nets; that all those who may agree with me in opinion, may unite in petitions to the Legislature to pass such laws as may effectually prevent the use of them hereafter in the Potomac. Since the introduction of these Nets into our waters, the people of the upper counties have experienced the most pernicious effects of this practice. It is a fact well known, that many persons at the last season, after leaving their homes, with their teams, at the most busy season of the year, and travelling, perhaps, from 50 to 100 miles to reach the nearest landings, and after being detained there a considerable time, exposed to the inclemencies of the weather, and often without any shelter but what was afforded to them by the coverings of their waggons, while their crops too were suffering greatly at home, were obliged at last to return without any fish. Some procured their Herrings, but not one in ten could get the Shad they wanted for their families. These Gill Nets, it is said, are fished almost exclusively by persons from the Eastward—a covetous people they must be—they would take the bread from our mouths if they could do it—and they certainly will the fish if left to themselves. It is stated they had 500 vessels engaged in this business during the last season; such a number of Nets will form such an obstruction in the river as to keep back the Shad altogether, and by breaking the schools of Herrings will render even the catching of them uncertain. And what adds to our grievance, the fish that are caught in this manner are not disposed of to our citizens, but are cured on board the vessels that take them, and carried as an article of traffic to some other portions of the Union, or, perhaps, to foreign parts.
The people of the upper counties are peculiarly situated; living remote from any of the Rivers, with which nature has so bountifully watered our state, they have only an opportunity afforded to them once a year of procuring fish of any kind for their families; and it rests with the Legislature to determine whether they shall be deprived of this right, attended as it is too, with great sacrifice, expense and trouble; and it must be known too to the members that may compose that body, that fish, from long use and custom, have become indispensably necessary to our families.
If any doubt should exist as to the facts herein stated, I have only to observe that they will be entirely removed by referring to any one from either of the upper counties, who attended at the landings either of the two last seasons, particularly the last.
Having said much more than I intended, I have only to call upon those who feel an interest in this business, to lose no time in getting signatures to such a petition as I have recommended, and also to see and converse upon the subject with such persons as they may think proper to send as delegates to the next General Assembly; and I have also to request the favor of the editors of the Fredericktown papers, to give these remarks a place in their respective papers, that the subject may be fully brought before the people of the upper counties.
